HOW TO WRITE A SUCCESSFUL FAN LETTER

Writing your favorite celebrity can be a fun and rewarding experience. However, there are a few things to remember when writing to be sure that you get the best response possible. Here the best tips and tricks that have been time-tested and proven to work:

- Always send a self-addressed stamped envelope. The abbreviation for this is "SASE."

Enclose a folded 8x10 manila envelope, pre-addressed back to you with the proper postage (usually 2-3 stamps.) Use your address as the return address. Enclose this along with your letter and photograph (more on this later) in a 9x12 manila envelope. Make sure that you weigh the total package at the post office to ensure correct postage.

- Celebrities will often enclose a photo of themselves, but to help maximize responses, it is a good idea to enclose a photo of your own.

This can be any type of photo, even one torn out of a magazine will do.

- DO NOT send food, money, or gifts to celebrities.

They do not appreciate receiving a large package in the mail. If you don't understand why, the key words are: mail bombs!

- It is also a good idea to enclose a few 3x5 blank index cards.

Only enclose a maximum of three - more is asking a little too much. Celebrities will usually return these, and they're a great addition to your collection. They are also great to trade with friends and other autograph collectors.

- Always include a letter acknowledging the star's accomplishments.

Constructive criticism is okay, but be assured that non-constructive criticism will result in your letter ending up in the trash!

- If you are writing to a celebrity in another country, include three to four International Reply Coupons (IRCs) in the envelope as return postage.

- Research the celebrity's biographies and works.

- Include personal information about how much you like them and that will make them all the more willing to reply.

- Preferably type your letter, or at least write it neatly.

- Keep it short, and get to the point quickly.

- Kindly ask for an autograph, but do not beg.

- Double-space, and remember to include your name and address on the letter.

- Check your spelling! The hardest part about collecting autographs and getting replies through the mail is the wait.

Some celebrities will respond immediately, but some can take up to a year! As a general rule, you should allow four to eight weeks to receive a reply. The rule here is to BE PATIENT! SAMPLE LETTER: Dear Heath Ledger, I have been a fan of yours for years, and have enjoyed your many [movies, songs, etc.]

My favorite is _____A Knight's Tale_____.

I was wondering if you would mind sending me your autograph. I have enclosed a SASE for your convenience. I hope to hear from you soon, and deeply appreciate your generosity in fulfilling this request. Thank you.Sincerely,[Your name, signature, and mailing address]
